

USD 273 Educational Foundation

Scholarships

The USD 273 Educational Foundation is proud to support Beloit High School students and graduates as they continue their education. Scholarship opportunities are available for students pursuing careers in healthcare and music.

Helen Jagger Scholarship

For Nursing & Allied Health Students

The Helen Jagger Scholarship, administered by the USD 273 Educational Foundation, is available to:

1. Current Beloit High School seniors
2. Undergraduate students who graduated from Beloit High School
3. Students attending a one-, two-, or four-year post-secondary institution
4. Students pursuing a nursing or allied health major
5. Students enrolled full-time

Important: An awarded scholarship must be used during the year for which it is awarded and cannot be deferred to another year.

Margaret Bowlus Music Scholarship

For Music Students

The Margaret Bowlus Music Scholarship, administered by the USD 273 Educational Foundation, is available to:

1. Current Beloit High School seniors
2. Undergraduate students who graduated from Beloit High School
3. Students attending a two- or four-year post-secondary institution
4. Students pursuing a music education major or another music major
5. Students enrolled full-time

Important: An awarded scholarship must be used during the year for which it is awarded and cannot be deferred to another year.

Invest in Your Future

Whether you are preparing for a career in healthcare or pursuing your passion for music, the USD 273 Educational Foundation is proud to help support the next step in your education.

Interested in applying?

Watch this page for scholarship application information, deadlines, and additional details.