

JQF MARRIED STUDENTS OR SINGLE PARENT STUDENTS

JQF

Married students and/or single parent students having custody of a minor child, shall have access to the same educational opportunities, special services and considerations that are provided other students enrolled in the district.

Marital status shall not affect the rights and privileges of students to take part in any extracurricular activity offered by the school.

The administration is authorized, in terms of the statements above, to make special arrangements for attendance, promotion, graduation, etc., for married students who wish to continue and complete their education in the schools of the district.

APPROVED: August 6, 1973

AMENDED: December 13, 1982

AMENDED: January 14, 1991

AMENDED: November 10, 1997

REVIEWED: January 14, 2002

REVIEWED: April 10, 2012

REVIEWED AND APPROVED: January 14, 2013

JQF-R MARRIED STUDENTS OR SINGLE PARENT STUDENTS

JQF-R

To clarify questions that may arise and to make possible fair arrangements for all cases in which married students or students who are custodial parents may be involved, the board has established the following regulations and principles.

They may be classified as special students for attendance purposes, subject to mutual agreement.

JQF-R MARRIED STUDENTS OR SINGLE PARENT STUDENTS

JQF-R-2

All cases will be handled on an individual basis. Consideration will be shown by the administration so that the best possible arrangement regarding credits and graduation can be made.

APPROVED: August 6, 1973

AMENDED: December 13, 1982

AMENDED: January 14, 1991

AMENDED: November 10, 1997

REVIEWED: January 14, 2002

REVIEWED: April 10, 2012

REVIEWED AND APPROVED: January 14, 2013