

String Fling Schedule Beloit Junior Orchestra

Saturday, January 19

- 5:15 AM All students and sponsors meet in the band room of BJSHS.
Each student will need a folding music stand, pencil with eraser, instrument. Please label your instrument, bow, and stand.
Music will be supplied at the "String Fling" so folders will not be taken.
Please take special care of your instrument on this trip. There are 800 students enrolled! Mark both halves of the music stand!
Don't forget to bring your instrument back to Beloit (it happens!).
- 5:30 AM Depart for Manhattan!
- 7:30 AM Stop at McDonalds for breakfast.
- 8:00 AM Locate your orchestra seat and have instrument tuned.
Seating will be first come - first served so try to find a seat that is appropriate for you (advanced players toward the front).

BE ATTENDING STRING FLING 2019. STRESS THAT THESE RULES ARE OF THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE!
You are the guests of KSU and the Music Department. You are expected to act politely and to show respect for property and for people in authority.

No running or throwing objects in the building.

McCain Auditorium and Music Wing - You are absolutely forbidden to use the elevators unless you must for physical reasons. The fountain in the Courtyard is an expensive and fragile piece of equipment. Do not throw anything in the fountain. No one is allowed on the third floor of the Music Wing.

No food or drinks in the rehearsal area, especially the main stage

KSU students will chaperone the students during breaks.
